

BELFAST PASSES THROUGH WORST DAY OF TERRORISM IN HISTORY

Death List Reaches 12 With More than Score Wounded—Many Street Cars Bombed—Truce Arranged Between Republicans and Orangemen.

Belfast, June 1.—Belfast has just passed through the worst twenty-four hours of terrorism in its turbulent history. The death list was brought to twelve just before noon. More than a score have been wounded. Firing was incessant. Many street cars were bombed.

The twelfth violent death occurred when an eleven-year-old boy was shot to death while on his way to school. It is believed he was killed by a stray bullet.

A truce has been arranged between the Irish Republicans and Orangemen in the Strabane-Lifford sector of the Donegal-Tyrone County line in Ulster. That zone has been the scene of violent fighting.

Craig Asks British To Open Offensive On Ulster Border

London, June 1.—A report that Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster had asked the British government to take aggressive military action on the Ulster frontier was followed this afternoon by word from Belfast that soldiers were replacing the police at some points on the border of Tyrone county, where violent fighting has been raging between Republicans and Orangemen.

The soldiers were reported to be throwing up entrenchments to defend their positions.

Sir James Craig accompanied by the marquis of Londonderry, minister of education in the Ulster government, arrived from Belfast today and went into conference with Lloyd George and Colonial Secretary Churchill.

Upon leaving the conference Sir James made the following statement:

"The discussions are over, until tomorrow. I am asking only that Ulster not be molested. The British government is sympathetic towards our request. We do not care what happens to south Ireland (Irish Free State) so long as they leave us alone."

There are extensive concentrations of English troops in Ulster supported with artillery, tanks, armored cars and airplanes. Also there are many British warships in Ulster waters. Heretofore these English troops have been held in reserve. Sir James Craig now insists that they be utilized for a systematic military campaign against the Republicans.

The Anglo-Irish conference over the Collins-DeValera coalition agreement has begun to drift aimlessly and it is admitted by Downing street officials that the situation has become more dangerous.

BUCYRUS WOMAN U. S. DRY AGENT

Miss Georgia Hopley, of Bucyrus, O., and of Washington, D. C., is the only woman prohibition agent in the country.

GUARDS PROPERTY ON STREET AFTER LOSING HER HOME

Miss Pearl Means, of Yellow Springs, daughter of the late William Means, former Mayor of Cincinnati, guarded her household goods on the streets of Yellow Springs Thursday the victim of election proceedings that deprived her of her home in the old Means estate.

Acting on the theory that her home is her castle, Miss Means did not give up her position without a fight. Barricaded in her home Wednesday with a gun close at hand she defied Constable Andy Holland, to institute election proceedings and managed for a time to stave off the law.

A short time after that Deputy Sheriffs Birch and Day took charge of the situation and brought the woman to this city, where she was locked up until her household goods were removed from the house to the street and the house locked against her entrance, when she was released. Late Wednesday night she was still guarding her property on the street.

The Means house and adjoining estate were sold to Antioch College before the death of Mayor Means, with the proviso that the family could continue to occupy it until his death. After the death of Mayor Means, the College continued to permit Miss Means the use of the house until recently, when a demand was made that she vacate. She rebelled. The College offered her other property in the village in which to make her home but she refused to accept the offer. Her sister, Mrs. W. A. Julian, wife of the Cincinnati shoe manufacturer and former Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, also offered her sister sanctuary but this she also refused to accept. Whereupon College authorities instituted election proceedings, resulting in the deft cast in the face of the constable and the resultant arrest and forcible ejection.

PICKFORD DECISION BRINGS RELIEF TO HUNDREDS DIVORCED

Ruling of Nevada Supreme Court Closes Chapter.

Carson City, Nev., June 1.—The unanimous decision of the Nevada Supreme Court denying the rights of the state's attorney general to intervene to set aside the divorce of Mary Pickford from Owen Moore brought relief to thousands of persons who have secured quick divorces in Nevada in the last decade.

Had the court decided that the attorney general had a right to intervene as an interested party it would have been possible to have brought actions similar to the Pickford case in many hundreds of cases in which divorces were secured after just the legal residence period.

The men were killed by the coal gas fumes from the engines.

BONUS BILL OR TARIFF IS NOW SENATE PROBLEM

Question of Which Comes First Worries Members of Upper House

BODY IS DIVIDED

McCumber Insisted That His Measure Be Given Attention.

Washington, June 1.—Injection of the soldier bonus into the senate legislative tangle found Republican leaders still divided today as to whether the tariff should be sidetracked for the bonus, or the bonus should be held up until the tariff is disposed of.

Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, chairman of the senate finance committee was insistent that the bonus bill be passed first. He said he hoped to reach an agreement with other senators to permit the bill to be shot through after two of three days of debate.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Curtis of Kansas, Watson of Indiana and other Republican leaders were of the opinion that any attempt to displace the tariff for the bonus would lead to a filibuster by Republican and Democratic opponents of the bonus which would seriously jeopardize the tariff bill.

They knew, they said, it was the intention of Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho an avowed foe of the bonus to attack it at considerable length and with Underwood of Alabama, the Democratic leader; Wadsworth of New York, Glass of Virginia and other bonus opponents prepared to discuss it they were extremely dubious as to whether the bill could be passed quickly.

To add to the tribulation of the Republican leaders notice was served on the Democratic side by Strong bonus advocates like Walsh of Mass., that they would not consent to the bonus being delayed indefinitely. Delay might imperil its chances of passage at the present session, Walsh argued.

SHOEMAKER FILES CANDIDACY FOR TREASURER'S OFFICE

J. F. Shoemaker, Goes Station merchant, Wednesday filed his declaration of candidacy for the Republican nomination for County treasurer, with Carl Ervin, clerk of the County Board of Elections.

The filing of Mr. Shoemaker's papers insured a race for the nomination to that office. Although he is the only candidate to file so far, Frank Jackson, former sheriff, has announced unofficially that he will be a candidate, and will file his papers sometime within the next few days.

Whether there will be any other candidates for the nomination for the office of guarding the public's money, is not yet known. There has been some rumors that James Lewis of near Jamestown, would be a candidate for the office, but he has not yet declared himself.

Mr. Shoemaker has been in the general merchandizing business in Goes for many years and is well known in the northern part of the county. His papers were signed by J. M. Wolford, Yellow Springs newspaper publisher, by Howard Applegate, Yellow Springs, former county sheriff, and by W. E. Littleton, W. A. Alexander and P. W. Weiss, Yellow Springs business men.

SHOP WORKERS TO FEEL KNIFE OF REDUCTION

Cuts for 400,000 Members of Shop Crafts Unions Promised

TAKE STRIKE VOTE

Five to Nine Cents Per Hour to be Lopped Off Latest Plan.

Chicago, June 1.—Despite the growing menace of a nation-wide railroad strike in protest against wage reductions, the U. S. Railway Labor Board, it was authoritatively learned today will announce wage cuts for 400,000 members of shop-crafts unions before the end of the present week. The decision may be handed down today.

The wage reductions to be fixed by this latest order of the board will it is known, range from 5 to 9 cents per hour for the blacksmiths, machinists, boiler makers, sheet metal workers, carmen and helpers that form the shopcrafts unions. It is estimated that these reductions will amount to an annual payroll saving to the roads of approximately $50,000,000.

B. M. Jewell, president of the railroad employees department of the American Federation of Labor, announced that any wage cuts in the shop crafts unions will be followed by a strike vote. Strike ballots already are being prepared for the members of the maintenance of way brotherhood, whose wages were cut in a decision announced by the labor board on Sunday.

Jewell was to present to the labor board today a formal demand that the board take jurisdiction in all cases where violations or evasions of the provisions of the transportation act are charged against the railroads and order these practices stopped pending an adjustment. Should the board refuse to accede to the unions demands, Jewell has declared strike ballots will be sent out regardless of the wage decisions.

Grand Chiefs of sixteen railway unions have been summoned for a conference at Cincinnati next Tuesday and it is considered likely that a plan of concerted action will result from this conference. The possibility that the "defensive alliance" between the rail unions and the coal miners may take a more positive form as a result of this conference, also is considered probable.

RAILWAY WORKERS WILL ASSEMBLE IN CINCINNATI SOON

Grand Chiefs of 16 Brotherhoods To Be Represented.

Cincinnati, June 1.—Representatives of 2,000,000 railroad workers have accepted the invitation to meet in Cincinnati next week to discuss matters of common welfare of the employees, Edward H. Fitzgerald, grand president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, freight handlers and station and express employees, announced here this morning.

Grand Chiefs of sixteen railroad brotherhoods and officials of other unions will be among those to attend, Mr. Fitzgerald said. One of the chief topics of discussion will be the attitude of the unions toward the reductions in the wages of railroad employees recently made and contemplated by the U. S. Railroad labor board, he announced.

All of the leaders to attend the powwow here will remain in Cincinnati for the American Federation of Labor convention which opens on June 10.

PROMISE SENSATION IN CASE INVOLVING YOUNG MILLIONAIRE

May Arrest Ward On Murder Charge It Is Said.

White Plains, N. Y., June 1.—Sensational developments tending to discredit the story of Walter S. Ward, millionaire vice president of the Ward Baking company, and self confessed slayer of Clarence Peters, a former sailor, are expected soon, it was revealed today by a Westchester County official who is active in the investigation of the crime and its motive.

If these developments turn out according to present expectations the officials declared that young Ward would be re-arrested on a murder charge. At present he is at liberty on $50,000 bail with the charge of manslaughter hanging over him. Operatives of a nationally known detective agency that was called into the case, last night, are scouring every public and private hospital in the Metropolitan district for a second man who is said to have been wounded by the young millionaire. The Westchester County authorities are bending all their energies to running down the report that Peters, instead of being shot to death upon the Kensico reservoir road while he and two companions were demanding $75,000 blackmail from Ward, was really killed in the library of Ward's home at New Rochelle.

It was this version which said that a second man had been shot by Ward on the night of May 15, but that he was wounded through the shoulder.

MAKE COMMERCIAL REPRISALS ON U. S.

London, June 1.—British business men are preparing to make commercial reprisals on the United States if the Fordney tariff bill is passed by congress, it was revealed by the Star. This newspaper announced that British businessmen are conferring and are studying methods of retaliation. British business interests, the Star says, are that the Fordney tariff act will blow at world trade.

ATTACKS RENEWED AGAINST PRESENT ATTORNEY GENERAL

Administration Turns Deaf Ear to Watson's Bitter Denunciations.

Washington, June 1.—Efforts by Democratic senators to link up Attorney General Daugherty with a series of alleged "prohibition scandals" continued today in the face of the Republican counter charges that the attorney general's accusers were throwing out a "smoke screen" to shield former officers of the Wilson administration.

Administration leaders in the senate turned a deaf ear to the studied attempt by Senator Watson Democrat of Georgia to fasten upon Daugherty responsibility for numerous "liquor scandals" in New York.

Watson charged specially that Daugherty has ordered released 200,000 gallons of wine in New York after Thomas B. Felder his former law associate, had become attorney for the accused owners.

At the same time, Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, launched a new attack on Daugherty in connection with the Morse pardon case.

Caraway announced today he had received a letter from Colonel Felder which he said, showed that Daugherty and his partner were associated with the prosecution of the Mosch Magneto case only on different sides.

Caraway also said he would call the senate's attention to "wide discrepancies in statements of Daugherty and Felder regarding the attorney general's pay for freeing Morse."

On Mr. Nesbitt's death, February 21, 1914, Mr. Weaver assumed full ownership and full management of the store, which he has since operated under the name of the C. A. Weaver clothing store. During his merchandising career here, Mr. Weaver has taken a prominent part in local business life and has built up a large clientele. Styles BY LENORE

When navy blue foulard is developed on as slender and gracefully flowing lines as the summery gown illustrated in the sketch, Milady is sure of the kind of costume that goes to lunch and is perfectly suitable to stay for tea as well.

Only a narrow pleated panel of Georgette, which extends below the hem and is repeated on the reverse side in the back of the gown, relieves the figured background of the foulard.

These panels are navy blue, but as the material is figured in rust color, the same shade may be emphasized in rust colored panels. The sleeves, too, are softened by Georgette pleating.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT NOON THURSDAY

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Thursday when Miss Margaret Goodman, older daughter of Mrs. Mary Ann Goodman, became the bride of Mr. Earl Ware, of Columbus, at the Goodman home on South Miami Avenue at high noon.

The ceremony, marked with simplicity, was solemnized in the presence of about twenty five guests, including close friends and relatives. The rooms of the Goodman home were attractively decorated, a profusion of Columbia roses, with palms and ferns being used. The wedding service was read in the living room, before an improvised altar of flowers and palms. The Rev. D. D. Dodds, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, the bride's pastor, officiated at the service.

The bride entered with her bridesmaid, Miss Lillian Dixon, the bridegroom with his best man, Mr. David Goodman brother of the bride joining them at the altar.

The bride's dress was a lovely creation of white crepe de chine, fashioned in a girlish mode. Her flowers were a large bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Dixon wore a frock of pink organdie and carried Columbia roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Selma Goodman, the bride's sister, who wore white organdie.

Following the service, a dinner was served the bridal party, and the guests at the ceremony. The table was daintily laid, pink and white predominating, Columbia roses in large bouquets, offering a pretty note.

Mr. and Mrs. Ware left Thursday afternoon for the east, where they will spend their honeymoon, visiting Cleveland, Buffalo and other interesting points. Mrs. Ware wore for her traveling outfit a suit of navy blue with hat to match.

Upon their return they will reside at 764 Leonard Avenue, Columbus. Mr. Ware is the son of Mrs. J. H. Pugh, Columbus, and is employed on the Pennsylvania lines as conductor. His bride is a charming young girl, a graduate of Central High School, and well known in the city. Many prenuptial affairs have been arranged in her honor, by several of her friends.

BEAUTY CHATS

AUTO-SUGGESTION
We were talking last week about the miracle man of Nancy whose fame has spread all over Europe. It is really a shame to call him a miracle man because he is so anxious no one should consider what he has done in any way miraculous. Other physicians have done as much he says. Yet these are some of the things that have happened at his clinics. A young woman came to him who had been blind in one eye from the time she was a small child. She was examined. There was nothing wrong with the eye physically. Coue told her she could see, put his hand over the good eye and she saw perfectly with the one supposedly incapable of vision. She had believed that she could not see for so many years that there was no message from the eye to the brain. It was much like a broken telephone connection in which the doctor had re-constructed the broken wires. Stories like this are common. Everyone knows how the cripples have gone to the Cathedral at Lourdes and have walked and how the sick have gone there and have been made well. There are processions and great deal of emotional excitement at first and the people are worked up and believe that certain things do happen as anyone who has been to Lourdes will tell you. They were cured by faith, if you wish to call it that, or by auto-suggestion. It was suggested deep down into their minds that they would be well and they were. Even the most skeptical person knows that if he has no faith in her

SEVENTY PER CENT OF SOUTHERN VOTERS NOT ALLOWED TO VOTE.

Representative Tinkham, of Massachusetts, Republican, has renewed his campaign for a reapportionment of the House of Representatives by introducing a bill demanding a new and immediate census to show whether voters were disfranchised in any of the states at the last elections.

Mr. Tinkham has for a long time been assailing the Southern states on the ground that 70 per cent of the people are not allowed to vote. Last year he tried without success to force through a bill cutting down the Southern representation in the House.

The bill, which he has introduced will specify that the schedules of the proposed census "shall include for each inhabitant the name, place of abode, relationship to head of family, sex, color or race, whether under or over 21 years of age, and, if 21 years of age or over, whether or not the right to vote was exercised at the last presidential election and, if not, the reason why it was not so exercised," and that the statistics shall be tabulated by states, counties, cities and other minor civil divisions.

"My bill," says Mr. Tinkham, "provides in addition to the regular schedules that schedules shall be established which will allow the Census committee which formulates the new apportionment bill to have the best evidence obtainable upon which to base the enforcement of the mandatory Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution which directs that Congress shall reduce representation in the several states in proportion to the disfranchisement that may exist in them.

"Under present conditions, with federal representation based upon population and with the Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution unenforced, comes tremendously disproportionate representation in the federal Congress, destroying the equality of the several states as well as the franchise equality of the several states as well as the franchise equality of all the citizens of the United States. This question has become very much more than a racial question.

"The defiance and nullification of the Constitution and the present unconstitutional presidential and congressional elections in the United States and scandalous franchise injustice, if not corrected, may otherwise at some future time bring great civil discord, if not revolution, in the republic."

"WE WOULDN'T TAKE $40,000 FOR THOSE FOUR TREES!"

That's what a business man said of four white oaks in his town. Would you like to own a beautiful tree? If you do own one, could money buy it from you? John Davey, the famous "tree surgeon," tells you what kind of trees to plant and how to take care of those you have:

You may not have realized how much fine trees are worth to you, either as a property owner or as a resident of the towns in which these trees are. When John Davey, the greatest "tree man" in this country, was addressing an audience in Charlotte, North Carolina, a few years ago, someone asked him how much a tree was worth. Mr. Davey answered the question by asking another:

"How much would the people of this town take for the four beautiful white oaks in front of the Greater Charlotte Club? . . . Would you take five thousand dollars? . . . Ten thousand dollars? . . . Would you take twenty thousand dollars?"

At each question, there was a moment of thoughtful silence on the part of the audience, than a murmur of protest. Mr. Davey smiled and went on with his talk. Later, one of the business men of the town met him on the street.

"You asked if we would take twenty thousand dollars for those four trees," he said. "I've been thinking about it ever since; and I want to say that we wouldn't take forty thousand dollars for them! In fact, I can't think of a figure that would express their value to us; because we could not replace them within our lifetime, or the lifetime of our children."

On a certain farm near an Ohio town a magnificent tree stood in one of the fields. A man went to Mr. Davey and said: "If you can arrange to buy that farm for fifteen thousand dollars, I will take it. I want to own that tree."

Before Mr. Davey could begin negotiations the farmer decided that the tree in question was costing him a few rows of oats, and he cut it down. The man who had been willing to pay fifteen thousand dollars for the farm did not want it at all now; and the farmer sold it not long afterward for forty-five hundred dollars. Cutting down a tree had cost him over ten thousand dollars.

If you own your own home, if you intend to own a home some day, or if you want your town to be a desirable place to you and others, you ought to begin to think very seriously about this subject of the value of trees. Imagine your town without trees! If it is a barren, shadeless place now, imagine how different it could be made by planting trees. Realize that the cheapest way of adding cash to your own property is to plant trees, if there are none, or to guard and improve the trees you already have.

A Chicago man recently had some good-sized trees moved to his property at a cost of one thousand dollars per tree. A few years ago, an elm tree, eighteen inches in diameter, was moved half a mile to adorn an estate on Long Island. The owner of the estate could build his house and plant his gardens; and the work could be done in a comparatively few months. But he couldn't grow a tree of that size in fifty years. So he paid nine hundred and sixty dollars to get one; and it was cheap at that price.

ONCE A YEAR EVERYBODY OUGHT TO GO OFF AND FORGET IT

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Collins entertained a large number of their friends at their hospitable home north of this city at a dinner party last evening.

The New Jasper Stone Quarry firm of Bootes, Bales and Conklin is plaintiff in a suit filed today against the C. H. and D. Railway Co. The plaintiff avers that the C. H. and D. has begun the construction of a siding to the quarry of Long, Mallow, and Lewis which is so close to the plaintiff's quarry in violation of the agreement entered into, as to interfere with the plaintiff's business.

An annual report of the Greene County Sunday School Association has just been submitted. In the county there are 85 schools, 77 of which are held during the entire year. In these 85 schools there are 531 officers and 645 teachers and 776 scholars of all ages. The average attendance is 5,561.

I am a big ball, rolling noiselessly through limitless space. I float like a sunbeam illuminated by ethereal stars. A sun steadies me and I take a nap under the light of many moons.

My coat is more glorious than that of many colors which they offered to Joseph.

Get a little way off and look at me! My trees, my mountains, my valleys, my rivers—always in a hurry and never turning back. My animals, my birds, my walking and thinking people—all mere moving specks from where God looks at them.

My name is Earth, and I am very complex. I am steeped in mystery. I am North and South, I am East and West. I am one.

I am very great—yet but a speck among other and greater worlds.

Dogs poke their hunting noses into my skin and hug me close. Little children romp as I roll. Into my ether melt the heart voices of billions of little birds who play and nest in the covering of my fiery breast.

Something is always happening in and about me. Typhoons, wars, weddings, births, deaths smiles tears.

And yet I am perfumed with an exotic odor that fascinates the very leaves of the shrubs and trees which cling to my heart.

I sleep in beauty, and as I measure the hours against the years, I only pace off what is infinitesimal against the time of Eternity.

Out of my rivers and oceans, the thirsty Sun sucks my waters, to play with in pictured clouds and opaled sunsets, and then to drop back again to their source as making and moving parts of flowers, springs, and seas.

So that I am just a small play-ball of God's after all!

Infant Rash and Chafing

Quickly Healed by use of Sykes Comfort Powder

Northampton, Mass.—"In my work as a Nurse I find nothing heals rashes, chafing or a sore inflamed skin so quickly as Sykes Comfort Powder.

I am sending you a picture of a baby who suffered dreadfully from a baby rash—and I used Sykes Comfort Powder with great success after everything else had failed to heal it."—Mrs. C. K. Humphries, Nurse, Northampton, Mass.

The reason Sykes Comfort Powder is so successful in healing and preventing chafing, scalding, rashes and skin irritations is because it contains six healing, antiseptic ingredients not found in ordinary talcums. Physicians, mothers and nurses call it "A Healing Wonder."

HOW TO COOK ARTICHOKE, SWISS CHARD AND BRUSSELS SPROUTS

Several of my Column Readers have written to ask me how Artichokes, Swiss Chard and Brussels Sprouts are cooked. "I want to know before planting some of these things in my garden," says one letter. Any of these vegetables may be used with the following menu as the "green vegetable" mentioned:

Lamb Loin Chops
New Potatoes
Green Vegetable
Coffee Berry Shortcake

Boiled Artichokes: Cut off stem of the artichoke close to the leaves, remove outside bottom leaves, trim, and cut off one inch from top of leaves. With a sharp knife remove choke, then tie the artichoke with a string to keep its shape. Soak one-half hour in cold water, drain and cook 40 to 50 minutes if the French artichoke, and boil 40 to 50 minutes if the Jerusalem artichoke, in salted water to cover. Drain, remove string and serve with Bechamel or Hollandaise Sauce. In eating, the leaves are drawn out separately with the fingers, and dipped in the sauce, the fleshy ends, only, being eaten. Artichokes may also be cut in quarters, boiled, drained and served with Sauce Bernaise; mutton generally accompanies them in the menu when served this way.

Stuffed Artichokes: Prepare and cook as directed above having them lightly underdone. Then fill with the following: Chicken Stuffing: Cook together 1-2 cup of stale bread crumbs, 1-2 cup of milk, and 2 tablespoons of butter; remove from range and add one egg-white beaten stiff, a pinch each of salt, nutmeg, and pepper, and 2-3 cup of minced canned fresh chicken. Bake for one-half hour in a moderate oven basting several times with an ordinary thin White Sauce. Serve hot with more White Sauce poured over and around.

Boiled Brussels Sprouts: Remove outside leaves and soak 10 minutes in cold water. Then cook till easily pierced with a fork, in salted boiling water to cover. Drain and serve with an ordinary White Sauce—or without a sauce.

Stuffed Brussels Sprouts: Cook tender, as above directed and drain, and into a baking dish. Now dice celery to make one and one-half cups of it when cut up, and cook celery pieces in 3 tablespoons of melted butter for 2 minutes; add 8 tablespoons of flour and one and one-half cups of hot milk. When thickened slightly, turn this mixture into the baking dish with the cooked sprouts. Cover all with buttered breadcrumbs and bake in a hot oven till the crumbs are brown. Serve hot.

Swiss Chard: Cook one peck of washed swiss chard in boiling salted water to barely cover, and when tender drain it well and chop it finely. Now melt 2 tablespoons of butter or bacon fat, and 1 teaspoon of chopped raw onion and let cook for 3 minutes stirring constantly. Then also add 2 tablespoons of fine cracker crumbs or one and one-half tablespoons of flour, 1-2 teaspoon of salt, and one cup of either soup stock or canned chicken or consommé soup. Add the cooked chard to this mixture and when once more heated through serve. Garnish with sliced hard-boiled eggs if desired.

THE INTERNATIONAL NOTE AND MORTGAGE COMPANY

The R. L. Dollings Company, in supervising the operation of a large number of varied industries, and in safe-guarding its large investments, has for many years been keeping in closest touch with economic, industrial and financial problems.

There is today a universal need for money which creates a wonderful opportunity for its profitable employment. The Service Department of The R. L. Dollings Company, after an investigation extending over a period of nearly a year, reached the conclusion that a company of this character, with broad enough powers, a sufficiently large capital, and capable management, can be made tremendously successful from a financial standpoint, and conducted upon a basis where no risk is involved.

The International Note and Mortgage Company, of Columbus, Ohio, has all these elements essential for success, and therefore The
R. L. Dollings Co., announces an offering of the 7% Cumulative Participating Preferred Stock issue of said Company, amounting to $10,000,000 Tax free in Ohio.

YOUNG GIRL'S PLEA FOR FATHER'S DEATH GRANTED THURSDAY

Alleged Murderer of Wife
Dies in Electric Chair.

Michigan City, Ind., June 1.—The plea of Mabel Donovan, 17 years old, that her father be executed for the murder of her mother was answered at the state prison here early today when William E. Donovan died in the electric chair.

Donovan's execution climaxed one of the most unusual criminal cases in the history of Indiana.

Donovan died at eight minutes past midnight with a prayer on his lips for forgiveness for his daughter who had destroyed his single chance to escape the chair. Just before he went to the chair he received a letter from his daughter addressed to "dear old dad" and urging him to seek solace in prayer and asking for information about a brother.

Donovan protested his innocence to the last, contending that his wife, Laura, was killed by the accidental discharge of the pistol. He declared his wife had attempted to use the gun against him and that it was discharged when he attempted to wrest it from her.

Mabel Donovan, the daughter, was an eye witness of the death of her mother. She is now living at Harrodsburg, Ky.

When the girl heard that her father had applied for a reprieve, she wrote to Gov. Warren McCray of Indiana, asking that the governor make sure that the father paid the supreme penalty for the crime.

"My mother was surely the best woman that ever lived," she wrote. "She was shot down with my little baby sister in her arms without any cause whatever."

SOCIETY

AFTERNOON PARTY CHARMING AFFAIR

One of the most charming of afternoon affairs was given at the home of Mrs. Charles Maxey on the Union road, Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Maxey and her daughter Helen received about fifty guests for a thimble party.

The rooms of the Maxey home and the beautiful lawn, offered an ideal setting for an enjoyable informal afternoon, which the guests spent with their needlework. Masses of summer blossoms, baskets of peonies and roses predominating, added to the attractiveness of the rooms of the house.

During the afternoon a two course luncheon was served.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE AT PARSONAGE THURSDAY

In the presence of the two immediate families, and a few close friends, the marriage of Miss Ruth Hodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hodge of this city and Mr. Frank L. Johnson, prominent attorney of this city, was solemnized at the parsonage of Trinity Episcopal Church, Thursday morning at nine forty-five o'clock, the Rev. V. F. Brown, officiating.

Attired in a suit of navy blue tricotine, with a taffeta hat to match, and a gray fur scarf, the bride looked very charming. Her flowers were a corsage of Marechal Niel rose buds.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Curtis, Mrs. Curtis wearing a black taffeta suit, with a black lace hat. The single ring ceremony was used.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, left for Buffalo, Toronto, Montreal and Quebec where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return, their new home, which is nearing completion on North Galway street, will await their occupancy.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, are well known in the city, their marriage being of much interest to their large circle of friends. Mrs. Johnson has been honored with several prenuptial parties, during the past several weeks.

Miss Ruby Manor and Miss Margaret McNeary, motored to the automobile races at Indianapolis with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Liles, and daughter, Margaret and Mrs. Jack Landis and little son, Robert, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Whitt, of South Monroe street, and also visited friends at Chillicothe, and Quincy, Kentucky, have returned to their home in Gary Indiana.

Friends wishing to view the remains of Miss Ella Hudson, may call anytime after five o'clock Thursday evening, it is announced. Burial will be made in the family lot in Miami Cemetery, Waynesville.

Indomitable Durant

It is said in automotive circles that W. C. Durant accomplishes what he plans; to him difficulties are so many spurs to greater effort, making one get on the faster.

He is the man who made the Buick. He conceived and organized General Motors, including Cadillac, Chevrolet, Oakland and Oldsmobile. Certainly a considerable monument to one man's tireless energy.

But now, when many men would be content to enjoy a well-earned vacation, he is up to the armpits in the business of launching the crowning effort of his career.

It's "just a real good car," Durant says. "If it's good enough for him to christen with his own name, it's good enough for us," said the trade, and in 141 working days after the announcement they contracted for $31,000,000 worth of Durant cars.

LEES DIVORCE GRANTED

Practically everything pleaded for in the petition was granted the plaintiff in the case of Lona Estella Lees, against Otto M. Lees, just decided in Common Pleas Court.

The court granted the plaintiff divorce and the custody of their child, Gale Lees, exclusively. The defendant is enjoined from interfering with the child, but in the event that he removes from Florida to Ohio, he will be permitted to see the child each Sunday.

The property owned by the defendant in this city on which the Home Building and Savings Co., holds a $1,200 mortgage, was granted the plaintiff as alimony and also she will get all of the personal property. The defendant is also required to pay a weekly sum to the plaintiff for the support of the child.

Lees is a former Xenia restaurant proprietor, at one time owning the Interurban Restaurant and for a while managing the Atlas Hotel. He also conducted the Shawnee Kennels here. He is now in Florida.

HARRY E. BIRCH FOUND DEAD LATE WEDNESDAY IN BARN

Harry E. Birch, 50, of near Osborn formerly of Alpha, was found dead in the barn at his home, on Rural Route Number 2, Wednesday evening, by Marshal W. A. Schneider of Osborn, who was called to the scene by neighbors who heard the report of a gun.

Coroner R. L. Haines and Marshal Schneider stated that death was due to suicide.

According to word received by Coroner Haines from Marshal Schneider, the Marshal was called to the Birch home, Wednesday evening by neighbors. When Marshal Schneider arrived on the scene about seven o'clock, he found the body of Birch in the barn, with a shot gun by his side. The charge had entered the left side below the heart.

Birch had been in ill health for some time. He had undergone an operation several months ago and was in a weakened condition which is thought to have prompted his act.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Lulu Layton, of Clark County, and five small children. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Birch reside at Yellow Springs. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment at Osborn, funeral arrangements not having been completed.

BY JANE PHLET

The doctor immediately approved of Tim's going.

"It will do the boy a world of good Mrs. Cummings," he said. "And if I am any judge of character his stay with that young Norris will be a help to him in every way."

"So I guess I'll have to let you go, Timmie," his mother told him wink ing back her tears ever ready to flow. "Till miss you somethin' dreadful though."

"Don't cry, Ma! You'll git used to bein' without me," Tim replied, even the callousness of youth penetrated just a bit by her reluctance to have him leave her. "Gee! But I can't wait!" he ended with a boyish whoop.

Gertie had seen Tom—he had brought her home but the kiss had not been repeated, and their talk had been principally of Tim. It may be that the presence of Lilly had prevented the caress, although Len O'Connor, who was with her, had shown no such delicacy and had kissed Lilly openly with much gusto.

Only a week now remained of Tom's visit. Twice he had taken Gertie to a matinee, and she had gone with him into the country again. He had called at the Olympic several times to take her home, and occasionally had watched her dance.

He had been told of Lilly's engagement, and one never-to-be-forgotten afternoon he and Gertie had gone shopping for a wedding gift for her. The intimacy of looking at the things together the asking of vice as to what was both p

Just to help refresh your memory, I am naming some of the star players: Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Bambino Ruth, George Sisler, Carl Mays, Ray Schall, Roger Hornsby and Waite Hoyt.

135 Points Wins First Prize

If you can correctly rearrange the five names of the baseball players I'll give you 100 points toward winning the $250 prize or the Culver Auto. You will gain 25 more points by proving that you have shown a copy of The Rural Weekly to three of your friends. This will give you 125 points in all. The final 10 points will be awarded by the judges of the puzzle to the boy who sends in the largest correct list of words made up from the letters in the name of the Home Run King—"Bambino Ruth."

Send in your names of the five ball players and your list of words together. Send them in NOW.

Everybody Wins a Prize
